Celebrating A Life Well Lived

Career

She worked at Kenyatta National Hospital and served in the Health Information Department from September 1996 until her passing. She was humble, industrious, diligent and dedicated in dispensing her duties. She was dearly loved by all she interacted with while at work.

Illness & Final Moments

Keziah had been unwell since 2022 and was receiving treatment at Kenyatta National Hospital under the care of her doctors. On the evening of Tuesday 22nd September, she complained of stomach discomfort and was rushed to Kenyatta Hospital. After investigations, she was admitted the following morning, 23rd September. Sadly, her condition worsened and she developed difficulty in breathing. Though the doctors and medical team did all they could, she passed on at about 1:00 pm on Wednesday 23rd September 2026.

In Remembrance

We mourn a loving wife, mother, sister, aunt and friend and our hearts are heavy at her going. Yet, we give thanks to God for the gift of Keziah's life: her love, humility, kindness and wisdom, which touched us all and will live on in our hearts and in the lives of her sons.

Rest well, Keziah, until we meet again in Heavenly Glory. Amen.
